Further, that the assets of the Company after the proposed Arrangement will be far more than the Companies' liabilities. In view of this, it is submitted that the Hon'ble Tribunal direct the meeting of the Creditors of the Company and it undertakes to issue notice to the Creditors containing the details of the Scheme and other disclosures as per the provisions of Section 230 and 232 of Companies Act, 2013, and they can raise their objections to the proposed Scheme in terms of said sections. It is further stated that it would be in the interest of expediency, business and in the interests of justice and the meetings of the members and the creditors for approval of the Scheme be dispensed with.

5. The Learned Counsel for the Applicant Company/Transferee Company has filed written submissions dated 24th April, 2018, stating that when no arrangement is sought with the creditors calling of their meeting or seeking their dispensation is not required. In support of this contention, the Counsel has relied on decisions of the Hon'ble NCLT, Mumbai Bench in China Development Bank Corporation and Ors. V. Reliance Communication Ltd. And Ors. and Hon'ble High Court of Bombay in In Re: ICICI Bank Limited ([2003] 115 Comp Cas 456 (Bom)).

6. However, with respect to the decisions cited by the Counsel for the Applicant Company/Transferor Company, the factual matrix in the decisions is different from the present case. Hence the cited decisions are not applicable to the present scenario.

7. Further, the provisions of Section 230 of the Companies Act, 2013 read as follows:

"230 (1) Where a compromise or arrangement is proposed—
(a) between a company and its creditors or any class of them; or
(b) between a company and its members or any class of them, the Tribunal may, on the application of the company or of any creditor or member of the company, or in the case of a company which is being wound up, of the liquidator, appointed under this Act or under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, as the case may be, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, or of the members or class of members, as the case may be, to be called, held and conducted in such manner as the Tribunal directs.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, arrangement includes a reorganisation of the company's share capital by the consolidation of shares of different classes or by the division of shares into shares of different classes, or by both of those methods.

(6) Where, at a meeting held in pursuance of sub-section (1), majority of persons representing three-fourths in value of the creditors, or class of creditors or members or class of members, as the case may be, voting in person or by proxy or by postal ballot, agree to any compromise or arrangement and if such compromise or arrangement is sanctioned by the Tribunal by an order, the same shall be binding on the company, all the creditors, or class of creditors or members or class of members, as the case may be, or, in case of a company being wound up, on the liquidator, appointed under this Act or under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, as the case may be, and the contributories of the company.

(9) The Tribunal may dispense with calling of a meeting of creditor or class of creditors where such creditors or class of creditors, having at least ninety per cent. value, agree and confirm, by way of affidavit, to the scheme of compromise or arrangement."

As stated above, Companies Act, 2013 has prescribed a procedure for any arrangement and in case of creditors' meetings, permission to dispense with the meeting is allowed only when at least 90 per cent in value agree and consent by way of Affidavit to the scheme of compromise. Hence, convening the creditors' meeting is the intention of the legislature.
