ORDER

Ld. Counsel for the Income Tax department is directed to file their report which is supposed to have been filed before the Court, where the copy to the other side is already served. Surprisingly said reply to the Income Tax has been filed by the Ld. Counsel for the applicant along with its rejoinder but the original report of the Income Tax still has not come to the Court file. Let the report be placed in the Court file within five days by the Income Tax Department. Reply by other departments is already on record.

List for arguments on 13.11.2018.
