ORDER

Ld. Counsel for the Applicant as well as Proxy Counsel for the OL are present through VC. Ld. Counsel for the Petitioner Company has submitted that they have already sent e-mail to the OL on 26.09.2025. Proxy Counsel for the OL has submitted that she is no brief available with her with reference to this mail which has been sent on 26.09.2025 by the Petitioner Company. OL is directed to submit its representation to the application within three days, failing which, an appropriate order would be passed on the next date of hearing. As regards the reply to the RD's report, the same has not yet been placed on record as per the direction dated 09.09.2025. Petitioner-Company is directed to comply with the direction of 09.09.2025 within three days, failing which, an appropriate order would be issued on the next date. As regards the Income Tax Department is concerned, this Tribunal by order dated 27.05.2025, directed the Petitioner Company to take steps to serve the notice to the Income Tax Department and the same has been effected in the month of June 2025, however, till date, the representation of Income Tax Department is still awaited in spite of long lapse of required statutory period, accordingly, it is presumed that Income Tax Department has no representation in this matter and they have no objection to this particular petition i.e. CP(CAA)44/ND/2025 filed by the petitioner-company. List this matter on 04.11.2025.
