In the past Hon'ble High Court(s) have held that the provisions contained in Section 391 of Companies Act, 1956 (equivalent section under the erstwhile Companies Act, 1956) are a complete code in itself. Thus, no separate petition is necessary for reduction of capital which is a part of Scheme of Arrangement.

It is further submitted that all the equity shareholders and creditors, as applicable of the Petitioner Company have approved the Scheme in entirety by way of consent affidavits and the same shall be considered as deemed approval for capital reduction.
